

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

I believe that diverse ownership of stations is key and a broad array of subscribed services which these owners can order can provide whatever central resources are needed in addition to local programming.